Dear Mr. Melvin:

Section 3023(2g) of 1989 Wisconsin Act 121 directed the Department of Health and Social Services to submit to you, by February 1, 1990, a report on a study regarding the most suitable state department to administer youth services. Enclosed is that report.

I support the report's conclusion that youth services should remain in the Department of Health and Social Services, as directed by 1989 Wisconsin Acts 31 and 107. This Department looks forward to the opportunity of administering youth services programs within a single organization.

Dear Tom:

Pursuant to 1987 Wisconsin Act 27, Section 3024 (10r), the Department of Health and Social Services convened a Prison Overcrowding Task Force to study problems associated with the adult and juvenile justice systems. The Task Force included 22 members and began its work by first focusing upon the adult system which was experiencing the most growth and crowding. On behalf of the Task Force, the Department of Health and Social Services provided the Legislature with the requested report regarding adults in July 1989.

After concluding its work regarding adults, the Task Force turned its attention to the juvenile system. It met three times during the later half of 1989 and concluded by providing the Department with its recommendations which I am forwarding to the Legislature at this time.

In addition to the Task Force's Report, I am providing you with the response of the Department of Health and Social Services to the Task Force's recommendations. The Department's Response addresses both institutional and community juvenile justice issues.

I extend my gratitude to the men and women who diligently served as members on the Task Force, and I offer the Department's support of their efforts.

Sincerely,
PATRICIA A. GOODRICH
Secretary
